From the stunning Sonoma Coast AVA, this Pinot Noir is a bold reflection of the region's exceptional terroir and a testament to a family legacy rooted in winemaking excellence and sustainable farming practices. It's a place and time where these best elements come together to form a Perfect Union.

This Pinot Noir has vibrant character and striking balance. Aromatically expressive, it opens with vivid notes of red cherry, raspberry, and pomegranate, layered with hints of rose petal, black tea, and forest floor. On the palate, this Pinot Noir is fresh and lithe, with silky tannins and bright acidity that lend elegance and lift.

The tradition of quality and character has defined the Leonardini family's name for generations. Now, with several members launching an independent, stand-alone label, their collective passion is expanding in bold new directions.

This wine represents a perfect union—heritage and innovation, craftsmanship and sustainability—all rooted in a shared dedication to the land and the legacy it inspires.
